

Bohdana Sokoliuk

Legal Intern

Location	Stockholm
Mobile	+46 73 719 64 31
Language	Ukrainian, English, Russian
Email	Bohdana.Sokoliuk@se.dlapiper.com

Bohdana Sokoliuk is a Legal Intern in the Dispute Resolution group at DLA Piper Sweden. She holds an LL.B. in International Law (with honours) from Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. She is also currently an LL.M. candidate in International Commercial Arbitration Law at Stockholm University. Bohdana assists attorneys in international arbitration proceedings seated in Sweden. She also works with other DLA's offices on pro bono Ukrainian projects.

Throughout her legal education in Ukraine, Bohdana was annually awarded governmental scholarships for academic excellence. She also actively participated in international law moot court competitions, with a focus on public international law and international investment arbitration.

Qualifications

Professional background	Legal Intern, DLA Piper Sweden KB	2022-
-------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------

Education	Candidate for Master of Laws in International Commercial Arbitration, Stockholm University	2024-2025
	Bachelor of Laws (with honours) in International Law, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv	2020-2024

Certificates	Rule of Law, Justice and Human Rights, Ilia State University	2024
	Legal Skills in a Time of War, CEELI Institute	2024
	M&A Academy, AVELLUM Law Firm	2024
	Investment Law, Business Consulting Academy	2023
	Introduction to International Commercial Arbitration, Stockholm University	2022
	International Contract Drafting, University of Hamburg	2022
	Intellectual Property Law and Practice, Commercial Law Development Program	2022

Memberships	Young ITA (Institute for Transnational Arbitration)
	Young ICCA (International Council for Commercial Arbitration)

Experience

Selected experience Provided comprehensive support to Stockholm-seated SCC arbitral proceedings under Swedish and Romanian legal frameworks concerning: termination of a financial energy agreement between two European companies, a EUR 170 million construction project in Sweden, a lost profit claim over a multi-million-euro wind farm project in Romania.

Active in the firm's pro bono practice: assisted in advising major Ukrainian companies affected by the ongoing Russian war in Ukraine, engaged in the UNHCR research of Ukrainian legal framework and practice on the access to courts for refugees with disabilities, assisted the work of the PILnet on preparing global employment compass intended for foreigners in Ukraine.

Involved in the group's business development practice: co-organises the DLA Piper Global Vis Pre-Moot in Stockholm, co-authors updates on arbitration topics.

Assisted attorneys in preparation for a number of arbitration conferences in Sweden and abroad on: compliance matters in cross-border disputes, opportunities and challenges in international commercial arbitration, standards and trends in cross-examining fact and expert witnesses, the impact of sanctions on international arbitration.

Services

Dispute Resolution