

Proud partner of the Swedish Ski Association

Erik Selander
Partner

In June 2019, DLA Piper became the official legal partner of the Swedish Ski Association. DLA Piper was chosen for its broad experience and excellence within Swedish and international law, and industry experience from the media, sports and entertainment sector.

Among DLA Piper's clients are several sports organizations and national sports associations, as well as sponsors, producers and distributors of broadcasting rights to sporting events.

DLA Piper in Stockholm has a long-term commitment to Swedish skiing and have previously acted as the official legal advisor to Åre 2019, organizer of the FIS Alpine World Ski Championships. DLA Piper has also sponsored the FIS Ski World Cup competitions at Hammarbybacken in Stockholm.
