The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors has engaged DLA Piper to advise unsecured creditors on the legal matters in Norway, Sweden, and Denmark in connection with SAS' Chapter 11 process. The case is pending before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

DLA Piper is one of the world's largest law firms and has offices in more than 40 countries, including the Nordics. DLA Piper has previously advised on a wide range of high-profile national and international reconstructions.

Jonas Premfors, Partner and Head of Restructuring and Insolvency in Sweden, says:

"With DLA Piper's strong Nordic position and expertise in the restructuring area, we look forward to provide legal advice to the unsecured creditors during SAS' Chapter 11 process."

"Along with our colleagues in Denmark and Norway, we look forward to assisting our clients in this extensive and complex case, which requires global representation and a large team of experienced lawyers," says Jonas Premfors.
