

DLA Piper assisted OpSec Security with the acquisition of Zacco

Erik Björkeson
Partner, Head of Tax, Sweden

Adam Tideman
Senior Associate

Jakob Schilder-Knudsen
Partner

Mario Fernandez
Lawyer, Director

Ingólfur Örn Ingólfsson
Associate

OpSec Security is a world leader in brand authentication and integrity with a heritage that spans four decades. The combined business will count IP management professionals, software engineers, optical scientists, data analysts, and product designers among its global employees.

The acquisition of the leading intellectual property management company, Zacco, will bring opportunities to combine skills and knowledge in new ways. With a shared customer base of significant global brands, the ability to offer an expanded portfolio will create new reasons to remain with or move to OpSec.

DLA Piper assisted OpSec Security with all Swedish and Danish tax aspects related to the acquisition, including due diligence and structuring.

The matter demonstrates the strong cross-border collaboration within the Nordics at DLA Piper.

The combined Swedish and Danish DLA Piper tax team consisted of Erik Björkeson, Adam Tideman, Jakob Schilder-Knudsen, Mario Fernandez, and Ingólfur Örn Ingólfsson.

Services

Private equity, Mergers and Acquisitions, Tax
