"The Legal Innovator Prize 2023 will be awarded to a person that through energy, leadership, outstanding organizational skills and without fear has brought lawyers and technologists together, promoted legal tech into new disciplines, pushing the legal design movement in the Nordics and now taking the legal technologist role into knowledge management. A cornerstone in the legal tech community, that delivers not only words but a lot of action, Stockholm Legal Hackers, Stockholm Innovation Bootcamp, Legal Design Summit in Helsinki. And now also involved in the Collaboration between Definely and DLA Piper in Sweden bringing AI-tools to the Swedish language. "

Legal Innovator 2023 is for a person or organization that through leadership or innovation has contributed to the development of the legal industry and the law. The recognition is awarded annually at the Nordic Legal Tech Day in Stockholm.
