

DLA Piper recognized in Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2024

We are delighted to announce that DLA Piper has once again been recognized in Chambers and Partners Europe Guide.

Our teams and individuals in Sweden have earned notable rankings in the prestigious Chambers & Partners Europe 2024. These rankings are a result of thorough research, submissions, and interviews with client referees and competitors conducted for the Europe Guide covering 2024.

We extend our gratitude to all our clients for their valuable feedback on our services throughout the review period.

Selected client testimonials:

"The firm was able to analyse complex issues in a short time and provided valuable advice."

"DLA Piper team is experienced and involved in the details regarding the arrangements. The service is good and we feel comfortable about the advice we get"

"The team are solution-oriented, quick and straightforward."

"The members are very responsive and business-minded."

"DLA Piper has the capacity to work on complex and sophisticated matters and to find constructive and pragmatic solutions."

"Regardless of the complexity, DLA Piper's support is flawless. All cases are closed in a quick way with the customer grateful and pleased."

The lawyers are always available and very clear on their capacity and delivery time."

"DLA Piper team members have extensive experience in their respective areas of practice. They respond quickly and are easy to communicate with."

"They have solid commercial awareness and are always fair to negotiate with."

"Complex matters are handled in an efficient manner by the team and distilled effectively and clearly."

"The lawyers are very pragmatic and straightforward."

"DLA Piper are very commercially driven and responsive."

"The lawyers offer very prompt responses."

"DLA Piper has a broad team with different skills. The lawyers are always available and provide immediate responses."

"From junior to partner level, there is always the skill needed. The lawyers have impressive availability"

"They have a global presence and with that, a solid international network and accompanying legislation coverage."

"Our M&A transaction had some very unusual aspects and the DLA team took on the challenge to provide excellent advice on these challenging issues."