

DLA Piper confirms its position as one of the leading legal M&A advisors

DLA Piper is the law firm that advises on the most M&A transactions globally, in Europe and at a Nordic level, according to Mergermarket's Global and Regional M&A Rankings 9M 2024. This reflects the firm's involvement in a large number of M&A transactions across a wide range of industries.

With 708 transactions completed in the first three quarters of 2024, DLA Piper's international reach continues to provide valuable support to clients navigating cross-border deals. In Sweden, DLA Piper reached second place in the number of transactions, with 73 completed transactions in the first three quarters of the year.
