Kristina Dunbring joins DLA Piper as managing associate in Stockholm, strengthening the firm's capabilities in commercial lease law and real estate law.

Kristina joins DLA Piper from Baker McKenzie. She practises real estate law, with a focus on commercial leases, rights of use, real estate transactions and real estate development. With ten years of experience working in law firms, Kristina has represented both Swedish and international players in the rental and real estate market.

"We're extremely happy and proud to welcome Kristina to our team. Her experience in commercial leasing and real estate law will be a great asset to our clients. With an increasingly active market, with Kristina on board, we'll be even better equipped to meet an exciting future with new projects," says Mats Eriksson, head of the real estate group at DLA Piper.
