

DLA Piper Welcomes Alicia Ehn, Kim Bergman, and Emma Brolund to Stockholm Office

Mathias Berggren
Partner, Lawyer

We welcome Alicia Ehn, Kim Bergman and Emma Brolund to our Stockholm office. The three senior recruits strengthen our capabilities in M&A, Private Equity and Capital Markets transactions and boost our firm's continued growth ambitions.

"We're very pleased that Alicia, Kim and Emma have chosen to join us. They're all highly skilled lawyers who are appreciated by both clients and colleagues. Their experience will fit in well at DLA Piper, not only in Stockholm but also in our international cross-border matters and transactions," says Mathias Berggren, Head of Corporate in Sweden.

Alicia Ehn joins as Managing Associate in the firm's Private M&A practice group. She most recently comes from a role as Legal Counsel at Viaplay Studios and is now returning to DLA Piper, where she was previously a lawyer. Alicia represents clients in a wide range of corporate, commercial and financial matters, with a particular focus on the media industry.

Kim Bergman joins as Managing Associate in the firm's Private M&A practice group, and most recently comes from Mannheimer Swartling. Kim holds a law degree from Cambridge and has a background from Skadden Arps in London and Hong Kong. Kim specializes in private equity both in Sweden and internationally.

Emma Brolund joins as Special Counsel in the firm's Equity Capital Markets and Public M&A practice group, and most recently comes from Vinge. Emma is a capital markets specialist, and in addition to experience from leading law firms, she also has particular in-depth expertise in regulatory compliance in capital markets from her time at Nasdaq and the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority.
