

Miljana Bigović to Share Insights on the Role of Arbitration in International Business at the AIJA Half-Year Conference

Miljana Bigović
Senior Associate

Speaking Engagements

Miljana Bigović | Navigating regulatory landscapes in international business: insights and strategies | AIJA Half Year November Conference | 13 to 16 November | Luxembourg

Miljana Bigović, Senior Associate at DLA Piper in Sweden, will be a speaker at the upcoming AIJA Half Year November Conference (HYC), set to take place in Luxembourg from 13 to 16 November 2024.

Miljana will participate in a panel discussion titled “Navigating regulatory landscapes in international business: insights and strategies,” focusing on the evolving challenges and opportunities that businesses face in today’s complex regulatory environment. The session will delve into effective compliance strategies and the role of arbitration in mitigating risks associated with cross-border operations.

The AIJA HYC provides an invaluable platform for legal professionals to explore the latest trends in global corporate governance and compliance. We are excited to see Miljana's contribution to these vital discussions, offering her expertise and insights to a diverse audience of industry leaders and legal practitioners.

For more information, click here.

Services

Finance
