

DLA Piper appoints new partner

Magnus Oskarsson
Country Managing Partner, Lawyer

The global business law firm DLA Piper has welcomed Joel Montin as a new partner at its Stockholm office. Joel will join DLA Piper's Regulatory and Government Affairs practice group.

Joel has extensive experience in the banking, derivatives, and capital markets sectors, both in Sweden and internationally, gained in his previous positions at law firms and at Nordea and the Swedish central bank. He advises a range of businesses including major financial institutions, securities companies, and investment banks.

"We're delighted to welcome Joel to our partner team. He has an impressive background, and his experience and personal qualities fit well with our practice. We look forward to continuing to develop our Regulatory and Government Affairs practice with Joel and strengthening our position as a leading firm," said Magnus Oskarsson, Sweden managing partner at DLA Piper.

Joel will assume his role as partner at DLA Piper in Stockholm on December 1, 2024.

"It is a great honour that I am very pleased with. I look forward to working with my new colleagues, continuing to develop DLA Piper's impressive practice in Sweden, contributing to creating value for our clients, and being part of DLA Piper's global operations," said Joel.

