The Bergman Clinics group, a leading European healthcare company, has acquired Nordiska Kliniken, enhancing the group's offering of aesthetics services in Scandinavia. The acquisition strengthens Bergman Clinics' market position in Sweden, Norway, and Denmark.

Nordiska Kliniken's expertise in aesthetic treatments will complement Bergman Clinics' existing services, bolstering its presence in Sweden and opening up further expansion opportunities throughout Scandinavia. Nordiska Kliniken's commitment to quality care aligns perfectly with Bergman Clinics' vision, ensuring operational excellence and superior patient care.

The DLA Piper team advising Bergman Clinics on the acquisition has been led by Partners Peder Grandinson and Richard Folke, Managing Associate Martin Nyberg Arlert (Corporate/M&A) and Special Counsel Fredrika Allard (Life Sciences).
