

Finnish and Swedish public procurement, the war in Ukraine and the countries' applications for, and Finland's admission to, NATO

Charlotte Brunlid
Special Counsel, Advokat, Head of
Public Procurement

Charlotte Brunlid and Tuija Kaijalainen at DLA Piper has contributed to a special edition of the University of Nottingham's Public Procurement Law Review on defense procurement in Europe in light of the war in Ukraine. The volume comprised articles by defense procurement experts from Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Lithuania, Poland, the Netherlands, Romania, Sweden, the UK, and the United States.

This article is the pre-edited version of the article. The final version of the article will be published in Public Procurement Law Review ((2023) 32 P.P.L.R. 382–392).

PDF Finnish and Swedish Public Procurement.pdf

Tjänster Offentlig upphandling

Branscher Luftfart och Försvar
